

PRWR Worksheet [Graded]

Name: _____

Section: _____

Roll Number: _____

Title: _____

Part 1: Previewing

Follow these guidelines and preview the assigned text.

- 1- Read the title of the text. Create at least 3 questions using the title.[The toolkit for questions would be 'what, why, when, how, should' etc.]

*For example, Title of the chapter: The oil boom

Preview Questions: What does boom mean here?

How is that related to oil?

Answer:

- 2- Without reading the article, briefly explain what you know about the topic.

Answer:

- 3- Read the introduction [only] and figure out the main points of the article [without reading the whole article]. You may list all the main points in bullet point format.

Answer:

- 4- Read the headings and subheading (if any) and create questions from them.
- 5- Make a list of the words/terms which are either in bold, italics, color, captions or word bubbles.
- 6- Look at the illustrations and pictures. What do they tell you about the content?

Part 2: Reading

1. List all the main points and sub-points [if any] of the articles. [You may use the outline method previously explained during note taking]. The main points should not be less than 3.
2. List all the words you are unfamiliar with in the article.

Part 3: Writing

1. What was the theme/message of the article?[Explain in 2-3 lines]

Answer:

2. Summarize briefly what the article was about.[Maximum 70 words]

Answer:

3. For each main point you have listed above identify at least one fact from the article.

Answer:

4. What [if any] were the ideas you were unaware of before reading this article?

Answer:

5. In your opinion, what was the author's purpose behind writing the article?[answer in 3-4lines]

Answer:

6. How does the article relate to your life? Support your stance with evidence from the article.[answer should not be less than 50 words]

Answer:

Part 4: Recite

Using your recall memory write a critical review of the article. [Do not read the article again for this question]. (at least 100 words).

Answer: